

Reading Summary

Compared with students in the nation in this grade, this building has:

- A smaller percentage of high achieving students
- A smaller percentage of medium achieving students
- A larger percentage of low achieving students

The average Reading grade equivalent for this building, grade K, was K.5, which represents a national percentile rank of 13 for this time of the year. The typical student in grade K in this building scored higher than 13 percent of grade K students in the nation.

Language Summary

Compared with students in the nation in this grade, this building has:

- A smaller percentage of high achieving students
- A smaller percentage of medium achieving students
- A larger percentage of low achieving students

The average Language grade equivalent for this building, grade K, was K.1, which represents a national percentile rank of 7 for this time of the year. The typical student in grade K in this building scored higher than 7 percent of grade K students in the nation.

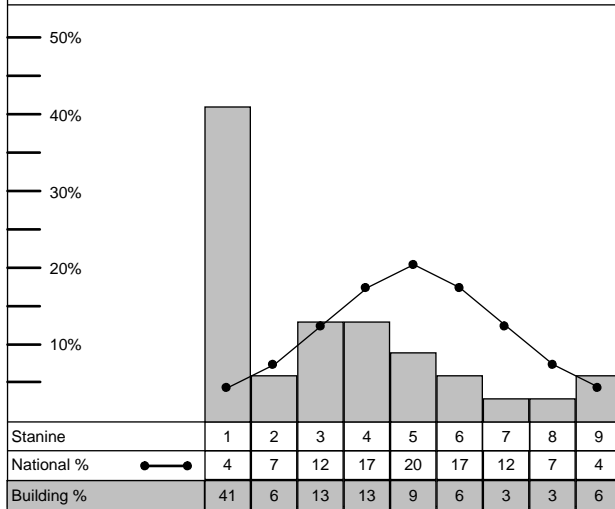

Vocabulary Summary

Compared with students in the nation in this grade, this building has:

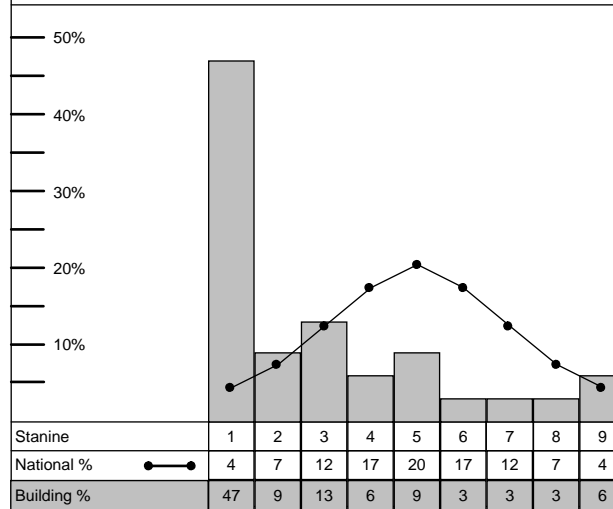

- A smaller percentage of high achieving students
- A smaller percentage of medium achieving students
- A larger percentage of low achieving students

The average Vocabulary grade equivalent for this building, grade K, was K.0, which represents a national percentile rank of 13 for this time of the year. The typical student in grade K in this building scored higher than 13 percent of grade K students in the nation.

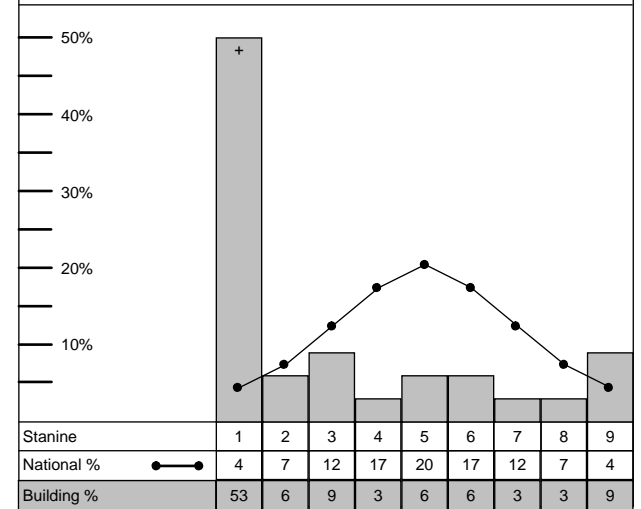

Percentage of Students by National Stanine

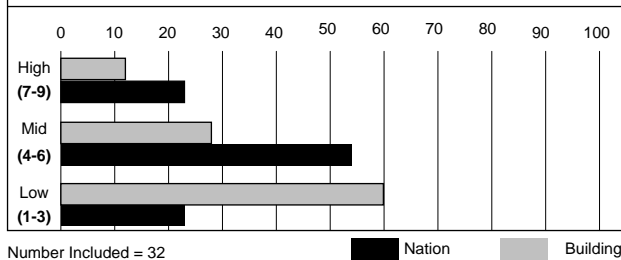

Percentage of Students by National Stanine

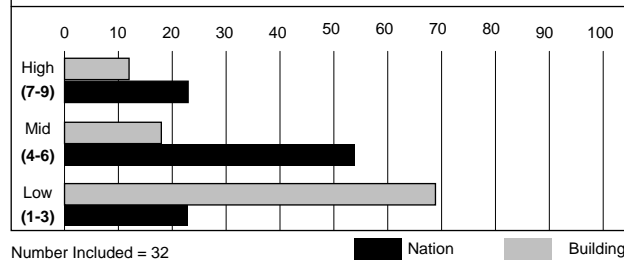

Percentage of Students by National Stanine

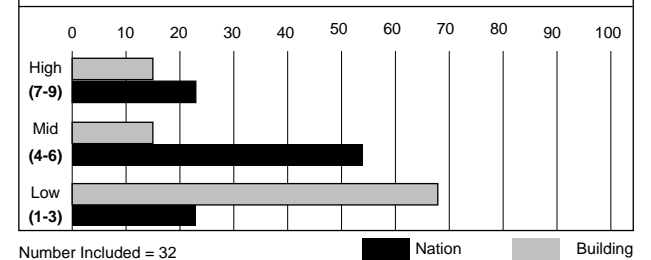

Percentage of Students by National Stanine Group

Percentage of Students by National Stanine Group

Percentage of Students by National Stanine Group

National % = National Percentage of Students in Stanine Building % = Building Percentage of Students in Stanine

Order#: 7686038